In the CSE.

This is a good start !

- To better defend your rights and claims, please send us, if you have not already done so, your private e-mail address so we can exchange information in complete confidentiality. Feedback is the best way to build and put forward individual and collective claims. At the CGT, it is the union members and staff who, frequently informed and consulted, democratically decide on the position of the union delegate and elected representatives.
- To better defend your rights and claims, we invite you to join the SNPEFP-CGT union. Membership is strictly confidential.

Becoming a union member allows us :

- to set up a union branch and to defend our individual and collective interests more efficiently,
- to propose constructive improvements to our professional commitments,
- to benefit from social, economic and union training organised by the SNPEFP-CGT,
- to have free access to the legal advice of our labour law specialists and lawyers,
- to contribute to the financing of trade union activity and the development of its means of action.
